Stanislaus Committed Program	Jennifer Marsh	Human Performance Project Concept Overview PowerPoint was presented by Anthony Page and Jason Larson, Co-Founders, Applied Performance Sciences. Helping students and communities live a life of excellence. These individuals share their unique knowledge and experience when presenting to young athletes and coaches. Their practical lessons on teamwork and SEAL training methods are extremely motivating. They have worked with different groups, schools for example: Hughson, Patterson and Waterford High School. Different areas are covered for example lifestyle choices: Proper nutrition, training properly, avoiding energy drinks and getting proper rest. Through education and shared experiences, the Committed model pushes students to greater heights. Some of the Hughson High School 2016/2017 Accomplishments: 85% of student population participates in the Life of a Husky program, Academic Decathlon 2017 County Winners-First time in school history; Mentoring with Middle & Elementary Schools and Freshmen Conference-165 students participated.
