DISCUSSION: The Political Reform Act requires every local government agency to review its Conflict of Interest Codes on a biennial basis to determine if it is accurate or, alternatively, that the code must be amended. The Board of Supervisors is the code reviewing body for county agencies and any other jurisdiction is solely within the County. Any amendments to an agency's Conflict of Interest Codes must be forwarded to the Board of Supervisor for adoption as the Code Reviewing Body. The Salida Fire Protection District and the Empire Union School District has submitted amendments to their Conflict of Interest Codes for approval by the Board.

POLICY
ISSUE: The Board of Supervisors must approve within 90 days any amendments to these agencies' Conflict of Interest Codes. An agency's amended code is not effective until it has been approved by the Board of Supervisors.

Section 100. Purpose

Pursuant to the provisions of Government Code Section 87300, et seq., the Salida Fire Protection District hereby adopts the following Conflict of Interest Code. Nothing contained herein is intended to modify or abridge the provisions of the Political Reform Act of 1974 (Government Code Section 81000). Except as otherwise indicated, the definitions of said Act and regulations adopted pursuant thereto are incorporated herein and this Code shall be interpreted in a manner consistent therewith.

Section 200. Designated Positions

The positions listed on Exhibit "A" are designated positions. Individuals holding those positions are designated members or employees and are deemed to make, or participate in the making of, decisions which may foreseeably have a material effect on a financial interest.

Each designated individual shall file an annual statement disclosing that individual's interest in investments, real property, and income, designated as reportable under the category to which the individual's position is assigned on Exhibit "B".

When an investment, or an interest in real property, is required to be reported, the statement shall contain:

- (2) The name of the business entity in which each investment is held, and a general description of the business activity in which the business entity is engaged;
- (3) The address or other precise location of the real property;
- (4) A statement whether the fair market value of the investment, or interest in real property, exceeds ten thousand dollars ($10,000), and whether it exceeds one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000). This information need not be provided with respect to an interest in real property which is used principally as the residence of the filer.

- (2) A statement whether the aggregate value of income from each source was greater than one thousand dollars ($1,000), and whether it was greater than ten thousand dollars ($10,000).
- (3) A description of the consideration, if any, for which the income was received.

Section 600. Disqualification

No designated individual shall make, participate in making, or use his or her official position to influence the making of any governmental decision which will foreseeably have a material financial effect, distinguishable from its effect on the public generally, on the individual or a member of his or her immediate family or on any other financial interest as defined in Government Code Section 87103.

No designated individual shall be prevented from making or participating in the making of any decision to the extent his or her participation is legally required for the decision to be made. The fact that the vote of a designated individual who is on a voting body is needed to break a tie does not make his or her participation legally required for purposes of this section.

Section 700. Manner of Disqualification

When a designated individual determines that he or she should not make a governmental decision because he or she has a financial interest in it, the determination not to act must be accompanied by disclosure of the financial interest. In the case of a voting body, this determination and disclosure shall be made part of the agency's official record; in the case of a designated individual who is the head of an agency, this determination and disclosure shall be made in writing to his or her appointing authority; and in the case of other designated individuals, this determination and disclosure shall be made in writing to the designated employee's supervisor.
