CITY of MODESTO
Proclamation

WHEREAS, on March 25, 2001 we will celebrate the 179th anniversary of the revolution which released Greece from the tyranny of the Ottoman Empire; and

WHEREAS, Greece's philosophical tradition inspired our Founding Fathers in their struggle for freedom and democracy; and

WHEREAS, their struggle, in turn, inspired the Greek patriot's courageous fight for independence in the 1820's and who we acknowledge and commemorate today; and

WHEREAS, Greece's intellectual, philosophical, cultural, and artistic contributions to the history of Western civilization are an important part of the world we live and the people of Greece and the people of the United States share a special and strong bond which goes back to the founding of our great nation; and

WHEREAS, the Greek American community is a vital, historic, and vibrant component of Modesto's diversity and with the support of the Order of AHEPA – the American Hellenic Educational Progressive Association, the Daughters of Penelope, and the Pancretan Organizations of Modesto, have made, and continue to make, significant contributions to our community.

Now, therefore, I do hereby proclaim

MARCH 25, 2001
GREEK INDEPENDENCE DAY
