BOARD OF SUPERVISORS

We are requesting the use of the County Court Yard for a ceremony after the parade on Veterans Day. This year the parade will be going up 10th to I then turning right on I then stopping at 12th street, turning into the court yard. The ceremony usually includes a member of the Board of Supervisors, Mayor of Modesto and other guest speakers. The American Legion, Disabled American Veterans, Viet Nam Veterans of America, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Purple Heart Veterans and some other groups will have booths set up in the court yard as well as our own Veterans Service Office. As you know the past parades went from Coffee Road to Scenic, into the cemetery. Many Veterans were not pleased about that. They believe that the cemetery is for Memorial Day not Veterans Day. We agree, and Carolyn Hebenstreich assisted Mr. Stedman who is the chairman for the parade in picking this route and using the court yard. We would like to Thank You in advance for supporting us and our Veterans.

Thank You,

Margie Palomino
