Subject: RE: Mental Health Board Meeting

My name is Guadalupe Castillon, and I am a Mental Health Board member. I am taking a little bit of your time to describe my current situation and at the same time to explain my absence from the Mental Health Board meetings. I was practically forced to move to live in Merced, because of my current financial situation and my son attending UC Merced, and if that was not enough now my mother is been very ill in Arizona and I had to take off from my work and come to Arizona to take care of her. She lives in Phoenix Arizona and does not have people at this time to be with her. I believe that if I sign up for a job or organization, in this case to be a board member of the Mental Health, I should be attending all meetings and stay well informed of everything that is going on to be able to do a good job.

I believe that since I am at the present time in Arizona, I am not going to be doing my best as a board member, therefore I want to give someone else a chance to do a better job than the one I am currently doing. I have no idea how or when my mother will be getting better so that I will be returning to California. I regret the inconveniences I may have caused all of the board members and I thank each one of them for their time. I wanted to make a difference in my community and be involved with the mentally ill cause, but unfortunately God had other plans for me. Thank you all for your time, again.

Respectfully

Guadalupe Castillon
