Accurate disclosure is essential to monitor whether officials have conflicts of interest and to help ensure public trust in government. This agency has reviewed its Conflict of Interest Code and has determined that (Check one box):

An amendment is required. The following amendments are necessary:

(Mark all that apply)

- Include new positions (including consultants) that must be designated
- Delete positions that manage public investments from the list of designated positions
- Revise disclosure categories
- Revise the titles of existing positions
- Delete titles of positions that have been abolished

Other (describe) see attached roster, effective 10/1/2010

Thank you

No amendment is required.

Verification

The agency's code accurately designates all positions that make or participate in the making of governmental decisions; the disclosure categories assigned to those positions accurately require the disclosure of all investments, business positions, interests in real property, and sources of income which may foreseeably be affected materially by the decisions made by those holding the designated positions; and the code includes all other provisions required by Government Code Section 87302.
