Dear Chairman O'Brien,

As you know I will be leaving Stanislaus County employment on November 2, 2012. As a Board you have provided me the opportunity to serve the community through appointments to various councils and commissions. Thank you for these learning and service opportunities. Please accept this as my letter of resignation from the following:

Stanislaus County Children and Families Commission
Earl Pride Scholarship Committee

I would be happy to confer with the persons you appoint to fill the vacancy created by my departure and answer questions they might have about their role in these organizations.

Sincerely,

Christine C. Applegate
