Approval of the 2013 Annual Equal Rights/Non-Discrimination Commitment Statement

DISCUSSION:

Each year the County's Equal Rights staff reviews and submits an updated Equal Rights/Non-Discrimination Statement to the County Board of Supervisors. This year, the statement was updated to include Ancestry and was reworded according to how the law reads relative to religious creed and genetic information. Additionally, the commitment statement has been revised in order to clarify and express the County's dedication to Equal Rights.

Upon approval, it will be distributed to all County Departments, the County's Equal Rights Commission, posted to the County's website, and to local community organizations. In addition, the County offers two classes for employees; Mandatory Sexual Harassment (AB 1825) and Preventing Workplace Harassment, Discrimination, and Retaliation. Both courses will be updated to educate our workforce on the County's commitment to our Equal Rights Program.

POLICY ISSUE:

County policy states the County's Equal Rights/Non-Discrimination Statement must be reviewed, updated if necessary, and disseminated annually both within the County and among community organizations. Approval of this Commitment Statement communicates the County's dedication to a clearly defined Equal Rights program, which is established to assure equal employment opportunity and non-discrimination towards those seeking employment, employees, and the services provided by County government.

STAFFING IMPACT:

There is no staffing impact associated with this recommendation.

It is hereby reaffirmed that there shall be no discrimination in County employment policies and practices including pre-employment medical examinations and inquiries, recruitments, advertising, testing, certification, hiring, transfers, promotions, job assignment, training, compensation, benefits, leaves of absence, layoffs (including reemployment), terminations, and all other conditions of employment based on race, religious creed, color, national origin, ancestry, physical or mental disability, medical condition, genetic information, pregnancy related condition, marital status, gender/sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, age (over 40), or political affiliation or belief. Moreover, it is further reaffirmed that our Workplace Harassment, Discrimination, and Anti-Retaliation Policy includes prohibition of harassment (visual, verbal, or physical) of an employee or client based on the conditions enumerated above. It is further reaffirmed that the County is also clearly committed to comply with all laws enforced by the EEOC including; Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 as amended (29 U.S.C. 797), the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) of 1990, and Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (P.L. 88-352) to the end that no person in the United States shall, on the basis of proscribed grounds, be excluded from participation, be denied the benefits, or be otherwise subjected to discrimination under any program or activity in which the County receives Federal financial assistance.

It will be the Chief Executive Officer's responsibility, in concert with those persons cited in the County's Equal Employment Opportunity Program, to effectively carryout the Board's commitment of assuring Equal Employment Opportunity and non-discrimination towards those who seek the services provided by County government.
