

ORDINANCE NO. C.S. 1158

AN ORDINANCE ADDING CHAPTER 3.65 TO THE STANISLAUS COUNTY CODE CONCERNING CONTRACTING WITH TEMPORARY HELP FIRMS

THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF THE COUNTY OF STANISLAUS, STATE OF CALIFORNIA, DO ORDAIN AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. Chapter 3.65 is hereby added to the Stanislaus County Code to read as follows:

“3.65.010 Purpose and Intent

It is the purpose and intent of this Ordinance to establish standards for County departments to contract with temporary help firms in a manner consistent with state law.

3.65.020 Authority

Pursuant to Government Code section 31000.4, the Board of Supervisors may contract with temporary help firms for temporary help to assist county agencies, departments, or offices during any peak load, temporary absence, or emergency other than a labor dispute, provided the board determines that it is in the economic interest of the county to provide such temporary help by contract, rather than employing persons for such purpose. Use of temporary help under this section shall be limited to a period of not to exceed 90 days for any single peak load, temporary absence, or emergency situation.

It is hereby determined that it is in the economic interest of the County to provide such temporary help by contract under the circumstances described in this chapter.

3.65.030 Definitions

For the purposes of this chapter, the following definitions shall apply:

“Peak Load” is a single period of 90 days or less during which the workload increases to a level such that the workload cannot be completed within the existing staffing levels.

“Temporary absence” is a single period of 90 days or less during which the staffing levels have decreased due to circumstances which include, but are not limited to, leaves of absence and vacancies of allocated positions and the department is unable to maintain current levels of service due to the temporary absence.

“Emergency” is a period of 90 days or less during which there is an unanticipated need for additional staffing to meet critical services.

ORDINANCE ADDING CHAPTER 3.65 TO THE CODE

“90 days” means a single instance of 90 billable/working days, irrespective of hours worked, with no extension, waiver, or exception permitted.

3.65.040 Authority to Contract with Temporary Help Firms

Departments are authorized to contract with temporary help firms during any peak load, temporary absence, or emergency as defined in section 3.65.030, subject to approval by the Chief Executive Officer or his/her designee. All contracts with temporary help firms shall contain insurance requirements established and approved by County Risk Management and County Counsel. The County Purchasing Agent is authorized to sign such contracts and any amendments thereto, within the monetary authority granted to the Purchasing Agent.

Section 2. This ordinance shall take effect thirty (30) days from and after the date of its passage and before the expiration of fifteen (15) days after its passage it shall be published once, with the names of the members voting for and against the same, in the Modesto Bee, a newspaper published in the County of Stanislaus, State of California.

Upon motion of Supervisor Chiesa, seconded by Supervisor De Martini, the foregoing ordinance was passed and adopted at a regular meeting of the Board of Supervisors of the County of Stanislaus, State of California, this 17th day of March, 2015, by the following called vote:

AYES: Supervisors: O'Brien, Chiesa, Monteith, De Martini, and Chairman Withrow
