TO: Stanislaus County Board of Supervisors
RE: Burbank Paradise Fire Protection District

Dear Stanislaus County Board of Supervisors,

In recognition of the voters supporting the passing of BPFDP Measure C Special Tax, our District would also like to thank several Stanislaus County employees that were of great support to our staff throughout the process.

Deputy County Council Thomas E. Boze helped to assure that BPFDP was within the law of passing our measure. Mr. Boze was a huge asset, not only assuring that we were on the correct path with choosing a Special Tax over a Proposition 218 increase, but also supported us in meetings with other County offices that questioned our choices and ability to have this measure passed.

Supervisor De Martini took the time to come to the BPFDP and have a meeting with Chief Hillar regarding our tax measure. Supervisor De Martini's positive input after hearing about our district and our plan for the election was encouraging and supportive.

Kathleen Styles, Candidate Services Unit, Stanislaus County Clerk Recorder/Elections Division was very helpful with guiding us with the election.

Janet (Slegers) Davenport, Property Tax Division, kept in constant contact throughout the process of preparing information to be placed on the tax roll, and again, was very supportive.

Again we would like to thank our residents, our Volunteers and the afore mentioned employees of Stanislaus County.

Sincerely,
Burbank Paradise Fire Protection District

MIKE HILLAR
